COUNCIL FAVORS SALOON SLASH

While no decisive action was taken by the city council last evening on the proposed new retail and wholesale liquor ordinance, indications are that the new law raising the annual license from $300 to $800 will be adopted. There was a large meeting with 46 of the 70 local dealers present. General objection was made, both by a petition signed by all of the saloon men and by a committee representing the dealers, to the increased fee.

A petition signed by 46 liquor dealers asked that the matter be held up until after the wet and dry election.

Mayor Garrard, Councilman Lane Councilman Ludewig and Gerlach all asked the saloon men what they proposed to do to better the conditions here and to cut the number of saloons from 70 downward. Lane said that many of those who signed the petition have told him personally that they believed that a raise is the proper thing. Councilman Ludewig said that the petition and the voiced protest by Attorney Lee Windrem representing the liquor people and by N. E. Richardson, P. M. Dean, Jack McLean, Edward McDuff, R. H. Curry and others had been presented too late as the council had been working for the past two months on the matter. "Unless the saloon men do something or the council does something to change conditions here, there will be a much bigger state dry vote next year than ever before" said Ludewig.

"We want the saloons out of the residential district" said Lane. "We have endeavored to be fair to all of the people. The saloon men themselves cannot agree on just what they want. Some want the $300 raise to be made into a redemption fund to be used to buy out those who would quit the business. Mr. McDuff here does not want that kind of a law. How are we toknow what the people want?

MAY BRING NAVAL BASE TO RICHMOND

A project which will eventually result in the establishment of a large shipbuilding concern on the local waterfront was broached to the city council last night by representatives of the Bay counties Land Company. The proposition promises to be realized in the very near future. Summarized the proposition is:

The Bay Counties Land company to give city land for street, 125 feet wide at the foot of Tenth street.

City to erect bulkhead at foot of Tenth street, to cost between $50,000 and $80,000.

Shipbuilding concern to locate at extreme end of Tenth street on area of 18 acres.

Shipbuilding interests to place bond, guaranteeing to erect yards and docks. City to then begin, immediately work on bulkhead.

The project is one of the most important for the development of the local waterfront ever proposed. The proposition is not merely being proposed with the idea of dying a natural death, according to those who are interested in the matter.

It is proposed to establish a shipbuilding concern along similar lines to that of the Union Iron Works in San Francisco. The plant will be erected at an enormous cost.

That the establishment of such a shipbuildign concern on the deep water frontage of the local waterfront, would eventually result in the establishment of a naval base on the local waterfront was the opinion of several prominent men present at the meeting.

The Council stated its intention of beginning work on the bulkhead immediately upon the deposit of the bond by the shipbuilding interests.

MIKE LUCEY TRADES FOR HOME

M. J. Kelly, the well known and active local real estate dealer yesterday consumated a deal for the trade of a beautiful local residence for property in Oakland. ERECTING HUGE BARGE

A barge costing $5,000 is being erected at the local wharves of the Blake Bros. Quarry Co.

DISPUTED SECTION IS FOUND NAVIGABLE

Members of the city department, Mayor Garrard and others, were guests of Colonel Rees in a launch trip up along the water front from the Standard Oil lonb wharf to San Pablo over the waterfront which is being disputed by the Mintzner estate. The estate claimed that the city could not dredge the section on the grounds that it was unnavigable and therefore their property. The launch which drew six feet of water had no difficulty in making the trip up the disputed section.

In the party were Mayor Garrard, Col. Rees, Superintendent L. D. Dimm, Harry Aine, A. G. Innes, Attorney Earl D. White of Oakland, City Attorney D. J. Hall, City Engineer Chapman and City Clerk A. C. Faris.

DEADLY DRUG USED TO WOO MAN TO SLEEP

An unusual case of the drug habit was discovered yesterday in the arrest of C. A. Stockdale, son of Mrs. W. H. Stockdale, 435 Standard avenue. The man has become addicted to the habit of using chloroform, inhaling the deadly fumes of the drug, it is said. It is said that Stockdale, who is 38 years of age would saturate a handkerchief in chloroform and would inhale the fumes.

Stockdale wil be taken to Martinez today for investigation.

AID IN FIGHT AGAINST DISEASE

The Richmond club has arranged to aid in the movement to aid in the fight against tuberculosis. As in former years, the local society will dispose of red cross stamps, the proceeds to be used by the National association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. Mrs. Mary Lucas is chairman of the committee in charge of the local campaign.

James H. Brown, father of Jas. H. Brown, Jr., said to be a local attorney died recently in Willits.

WILL BUILD ADDITIONS TO HIGH SCHOOL

Plans are being discussed by the Bord of Education for the addition of several rooms to the Richmond Union High School. The structure is at present taxed to its capacity and the board plans to add several rooms.

No action has yet been taken, but is is expected that at the next meeting some definite action will be taken.

With the number of students who will graduate from the local grammar school at the end of the present term, it is not expected that the high school will be able to accomodate all.

It is understood that the gymnasium of the high school will be converted into a classroom if necessary until the new addition is constructed.

FUNERAL OF CHILD IS HELD

Funeral services over the remains of little Elmer young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Buker, were conducted yesterday by the Rev. S. K. Skinner, pastor of the First Baptist church, who officiated in the absence of the Rev. Henry K. Sanborne, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

The child was struck and killed by a Santa Fe train Sunday.

The dog was found dead yesterday. An investigation disclosed the fact that the dog had been poisoned. Whether the action was that of a fanatic or spite is being investigated.

IMPORTANT ACTION BY SACRAMENTO

The following appears in the issue of the Sacramento Bee:

By CHARLES H. WOLFE

Of Sacramento Typographical, No. 46.

Sacramento is the first city in the State where both the City Comissioners and County Supervisors have granted the plea of Organized Labor that home labor be given preference on all public works. The local Federated Trades Council has received several requests from California Labor bodies for information regarding the subject, with a view to introducing it in other places: one of these was from El Centro in Imperial County.

The Supervisors and Commissioners have passed resolutions favoring Sacramento labor on public jobs.

The article above is of more than usual interest to the residents of the city of Richmond and Contra Costa county. Enemies of the Labor Unions in this vicinity have contended that it was an absolute impossibility for a city or a county to pass any ordinance or make any law, making it necessary for a contractor to agree to hire local labor in securing a public contract, providing, of course, the labor could be obtained.

This will prove the fallacy of the argument that it was against the law of the state to allow a city or a county to give its citizens and tax payers the opportunity to do the work which they are entitled to.

FINGER CUT BY BELT; IS LACERATED

D. E. Wilkinson, manager of the baseball team of the Modern Woodmen of America and employed at the Western Carbon company received a painful laceration of the little finger of his right hand yesterday. The member was caught in a belt.

NOTHING TO HINDER THE CITY HEADS

Since the origin of the Daily News, this newspaper has fought for an ordinance of this sort.

The city school board has been the first of the public officials of this city and county to take make thisc city and county to provide city school work. That their action is appreciated is indicated by the many favorable coments made by business men and residents of the city.

The Labor Unions of the city of Richmond have fought to have the city council pass an ordinance passed making it necessary for contractors in being awarded a public contract to sign an agreement to employ local labor.

A majority of the members of the council have intimated their desire to pass such an ordinance but on account of the interpretation of the law by certain interests have been led to believe that this action would be against the state's laws.

Supervisor Zeb Knott has atbeen intimated. It is for every Board of Supervisors to employ only county residents was unsue.

It is the big opportunity of the law would be unconstitutional.

Sacramento, the state capitol, has started the most important movement ever made. It is now up to the public officials of the city of Richmond and of the county officials of Contra Costa county to join in the movement which will soon become statewide.

There is no logical reason for delay. The Sacramento authorities have demonstrated that the passage of such an ordinance as suggested by the Daily News is constitutional.

It now remains for the city council and other city and county officials to prove to the people that they really have the interests at their city and county at heart. This is no move confined to a favored few local labor unions as has been intimated. It is for every workingman and woman in the city of Richmond and the county of Contra Costa.

It is the big opportunity for the man in public office to prove that they really desire to see their city and county prosper.

To every merchant this is important. In fact it is of greater importance to the merchant that to the working people.

There is no obstacle to present immediate action.

The officials of Sacramento are to be congratulated and they certainly deserve the praise and appreciation of every workingman and woman and also every taxpayer and booster in the state.

Now watch every city and county fall into line!

And let us all hope that Richmond will the first.

THE OLD SONGS—THE MUSIC OF THE EMOTIONS—COUNT

The smart concert was nearly over.

The musical critics had already gone and the society people in the boxes were beginning to gather up their wraps, when the singer stepped to the front of the stage and leaned quietly upon the piano and began to sing.

Nothing French or Italian—not a lieder or a chanson or a lyric—just a plain song—and an old-fashioned one at that.

One that your mother sang to your father when he came to tea on Sunday evenings—before they were married.

"Oh Genevieve, Sween Genievieve."

A strange song for a smart audience—and yet—

The society woman in one of the boxes sighed—leaned back in her seat and dropped her feather boa—the tilted man over here looking for horses for one of the armies, who sat in the next box, dropped his monocle—and two women of the world in two of the conspicuous seats in the house stopped whispering and rustling—and the whole room was as still as dawn.

"Oh Genevieve, I'd give the world—" How he sang it, the simple song —

"To live again the lovely past
The rose of youth was dew empearled—"

Rather commonplace for rhyming—rather obvious the sentiment—but somehow, as the singer spoke them—youth rose again from its low grave and hope and joy laughed again in the wind.

"Oh Genevieve—my early love.

Of whom did she think, the woman of fashion, sitting there with her little circle around her in her box—and where were the thoughts of the man of the world besides her—did they wander in country lanes again and was all the world a pretty garden for love's feet to stray in?

At the close of the song the room was still ad some smiled and a few looked as if they wanted to cry.

Then the storm broke and the singer had to bow before it—a storm of such aplause as never greeted any of the really classis music of which he is such a master.

"Maxwelton's Braes are bonny—"

"Kathleen Mavourneen the gray dawn is breaking—"

"Of all the girls that are so sweet, there's none so sweet as Sally"—sing some of these songs and let the critics raise their cultivated eyebrows in amused incredulity.

The world—the every day world full of the real people who really count—will come to listen to you as a tired child runs to climb upon the knee of the mother who bore him—and rest.

For so are we made—we of common clay.

Let's give him a surprise this year and do our Christmas mailing as early as our Christmas shopping.

Few customers realize the difficulty surrounding the manufacture of a bughouse col. Brains are essential and when handicapped by a lack of these, the job is exceedingly difficult. So it is in the case of the humble chronicler of these tidings. We have searched our dome for the past three quarters o fa n hour trying to think of the name of Denny J. Then there is Herman Tuller and Howard French and Rod Murphy and Al Childs and Joe McNamara and a gang of others But we can not think of a real good joke. CLANSMANTO OPEN NEXT MONDAY

Theatergoers of this city who care for the best in motion pictures can ill afford to miss the attraction at the Richmond theater next Monday and Tuesday evenings.

"The Clangman" has been correctly called the "greatest motion picture every produced. Its value lies not alone in the unerring presentation of historical facts but also in the wonderful scenery in which it is laid.

The story is based on the workings of the powerful Kin Klux Klan which shortly after the civil war held its victims in the south in a reign of terror.

Thousands of dolars were spent in producing the great masterpiece, one of the many expensive arrangements being the construction of an entire southern city, with the negro huts and plantation homes just as they existed in that most interesting part of the American history.

Particular attention has been paid to the historical data which forms the foundation for the play. The attack on Atlanta for instance, and the destruction of the town by Sherman's army has all been carried out just as it occured.

The picture has met with nothing but unmitigated success wherever it has been shown and this has been in many of the largest cities of the United States.

MANY a man is hoping that this Christmas he will get a Howard Watch.

So much of dignity and distinction goes with the ownership of a Howard—and how gratifying to receive a Gift so worthy your regard for him as a man among men.

In an off-hand way get him to say which Howard he would rather own—16-size or 12-size; Hunting or Open Face; Plain Polished Engine Turned or Engraved—and come and let us share in the privilege of selecting for him his Howard Watch.

You will find here the display of Howards from which you can make a fitting selection—whatever your requirements.

AT THE RICHMOND

"The Chorus Lady" wil be seen at the Richmond theater for the last time this eveing. One of the most remarkable features of the production is the rich gowns worn by the principals.

When the Jesse L. Laskey company began making plans for the presentation of the picture an order was sent to one of the foremost modists of New York, asking for thirty of the latest Parisienne gowns. The garments were used for the girls in the choruses.

The picture is intensely interesting and beautiful in scenery and costumes throughout.

Other attractions on the bill are Billy West, emotional actress, in "Merely Players". The little star is seen at her best in this picture and has made a great success of the role.

"Weary Willies' Woes" is a Falstaff comedy of real merit that possesses a laugh in every foot of film.

CHARGE EXPO. HEADS WITH "2ND STORY" METHODS

(Special to the NEWS)

MARTINEZ, Dec. 8—As the result of an alleged attempt on the part of officials of the Exposition to try "second story" methods with this county as the victim, the district attorney today took the matter up with the Exposiion people. No settlement has been reached as yet.

The action is the result of a notice served on Exposition Commissioner R. R. Veale that the county will not be permitted to remove its exhibits unless the exposition draying department is given the job, and that the county will be permitted to remove the facade surrounding the exhibit only when the work is done by exposition employees.

These instructions aroused the anger of the supervisors. It appears that the exposition has entered into a contract with a certain draying firm in the big metropolis and they are to be given the exclusive privelege of all of the draying work at the fair grounds.

A flagrant instance of the monopoly created and its approval by the fair management is reported by Mrs. E. B. Anderson of Richmond, who a few days ago made some purchases in the Ohio building. When Mrs. Anderson asked for a permit to have her goods removed she was told that it could be done only by the exposition. When she objected and stated that she would send a dray direct from her home she was told that it would not be permitted to enter the grounds. The sum of $27 was demanded for the removal of the goods and which she very properly refused to pay.

Some people aren't particular about their clothing but others are. If you are particular, if you wish to look RIGHT see Schumaher, the Tailor, 321 Sixth street—He makes them CORRECT. He also does cleaning and pressing.
